

Gathering Your Gifts

There is a gift inside of you!

Pre-requisite: none; open to all healing professionals
15 CE hours for hypnotherapists

Many of us in the healing professions are trained in a variety of modalities. For example, I'm a hypnotherapist, Reiki Master and EFT practitioner. I'm also highly intuitive and have taken classes recently in mediumship. And, while I do combine these modalities effectively, I wonder if I've had additional talents or gifts in the past that would make my work more effective. I am curious about how my gifts might evolve in the future.

My questions have led me to develop this new training. This course is open to anyone wishing to access their own gifts.

In this workshop you will

- Access your gifts, both known and hidden
- Learn to combine your talents
- Receive love and support
- Claim new possibilities
- Invite in a deeper life experience
- Draw on past and future life gifts
- Raise your vibration

In this live course participants will experience the exercises and group processes and leave with a program for their clients. Lecture, demonstration, supervised practice. Includes handouts.
